

A5 (OFF MAIN MAP) 28 BELFAST ZOO

t Zoo is located in North Belfast on the slopes of Cave Hill Only a 15 minute drive from the city Centre, this unique location vides unrivalled views across Belfast Lough. It is home to nore than 130 species, many of which are facing increasing langers in their natural habitats. The zoo carries out vital servation work, in N. Ireland and around the world, taking part in global collaborative breeding programmes, which help to ensure the future survival of species under threat. Swing by with your 'little while visiting Belfast's historic places and watering holes. Book online: www.

monkeys' for a ZOOPER day out, waddle over to visit the penguins and other favourites at feeding time and pick up a special 'zoovenir' at the photography base camp. You can also visit all of the latest zoo babies! Open daily. (except 24-25 Dec). Visit our website for opening times and prices.

3 IRISH FA EDUCATION AND HERITAGE CENTRE The National Football Stadium Windsor Park, Donegall Avenue, BT12 6LU, t. 02890 669458, 🛐 🛅 🔟 🔼

it the Irish FA Education and Heritage Centre and take a tour at the National Football Stadium at Windsor Park. Discover the unique story of Northern Ireland football ising a variety of media, interactive displays and key rtefacts from the 1880's to the present day. Visitors can elive the atmosphere of famous nights, gain insights into the drama on and off the pitch and feel the rush of emotions shared by everyone in the stadium – win, lose or draw. Followed by a behind-the-scenes guided stadium tour allowing visitors to walk in the same steps of our most mous players. The centre is self-guided and visitors will have 1 hour to explore the centre before the official stadium tour begins. To book visit our website. www.irishfa.com/tours. For group enquiries, email: tours@irishfa.com.

E4 🗿 Discover Ulster-Scots Centre

T. GEORGE'S

ANN STREET

k

RINGS O

Even though Ulster and Scotland are just 13 miles apart, Discover the story of the close connections can be hard to find in most museums. Here you can discover thousands of years of history, from the formation of the Giant's Causeway (which links Co. Antrim with the Western sles of Scotland) right up to the present day. Highlights include:

• Exhibition panels cover ten major stories, starting with the arrival of Edward Bruce in 1315. • Eric Montgomery Gallery shows the history of Scotch-Irish Pioneers and how they shaped America. • Journey planner map highlights other Ulster-Scots places to visit. | • Free Ulster-Scots literature available, much of which isn't available elsewhere. | • Gift shop offering books, CDs and tartanwares. Entry is free of charge!

gravevard in Ireland.

restaurants, independent shops and cafes. Cafes, Restaurants & Bars 7 The National Grande Cafe he Cloth Ear e Berliner he Sunflower Bar Taps Bar and Grill e Dirty Onion ylor & Clay 🚯 🖲 The Ramada Encore The John Hewitt elo Café Magasin

2	St Anne's Cathedral
D	St Patrick's Church	— Т
9	Sinclair Seamen's Church
9	St George's Parish	Ŭ
3	Redeemer Central Church	31
		ų

E5 3 E5 5 E5

D6 SUNFLOWER PUBLIC HOUSE 65 Union St., t. 028 9023 2474, www.sunflo

nis 120 yo city centre corner pub has been ransformed into a vibrant public house an live music venue. The last Belfast pub to retain it's 1980's security cage (re-painted a welcoming green and adorned with flower baskets) it specialises in Irish craft beers whiskies and gins. Music fans will love th eclectic lineup of live music on the intimate upstairs stage and the impromptu sessions downstairs featuring traditiona ish, Gypsy Jazz and Appalachian styles. It's hidden gem is the beer garden out back with it's wood fired pizza oven. ind it on the fringe of Cathedral Quarter, right behind Central Library and stones throw (a recognised measurement in Belfast) from the Art College. Open daily 12 noon to late.

E4 🚯 BABEL

www.babelbelfast.com, reservations@bullitthotel.com Babel is Bullitt Hotel's rooftop bar and garden complete with stunning city views, mout watering cocktails, delicious food and live music. A true urban oasis, Babel prides itself on its homegrown botanicals and innovative deas. Check out their Tipsy Tea – a modern twist on traditional Afternoon Tea – availab everv weekend!

bring to life on a visit Belfast Cathedral.

THE CATHEDRAL QUARTER

volunteer tour quides wi

🖪 Mal 🛛 🛛 🗠 🗠 🛛 🛛 The 34) 🙆 TI Historic Churches

Muse & books

Wee Toast Tour Street Art Walking Tours Belfast Mic'n'bike (CQ Murals)

Attractions & Activities

C2, F6 WEE TOAST TOURS

arista will serve you. Meet up with others and experience some of our world famous crai weetoasttours.com or call us for Availability: +44 (0)7591593441. Open Daily - with hourly tours starting 11:30AM - 9:00PM.

C5/6 B CLIFTON HOUSE

LEMINE

2 North Queen Street BT15 1ES, t. 02890 997022, www.cliftonbelfast.com lifton House (1774), Belfast's oldest working uilding, originally looked after the poor and ick of Belfast. Thousands of people; loca itizens, young and old, to passing sailors ought sanctuary within its walls. They were lothed, fed, educated and empowered to mprove their lives. Behind the scenes were a group of people perceived as 'a hot bed of radicals' yet they were instrumental in the development of Belfast - challenging C18th beliefs on slavery, reform and society - ultimately spearheading rebellion! Join our tours and walk in the ootsteps of renowned reformers and hear about the lives of the less privileged /isit Clifton Street Cemetery, the resting place of rebels including Mary Ann and Henry Joy McCracken, Thomas McCabe & William Drennan; poets and artists; American slaves; wealthy families buried alongside the largest famine

G1 (OFF MAIN MAP) 3 MUSEUM OF ORANGE HERITAGE Schomberg House 368 Cregagh Road, Belfast, BT6 9EY

t. 02890 701122, www.orangeheritage.co.uk ne Museum of Orange Heritage, through excellent audio visual and interactive exhibits, not only focuses on he history and traditions of the Orange Institution but lso highlights Orangeism around the world. In addition, t encourages understanding and addresses many of the ecent negative perceptions of The Orange Order via well designed and informative exhibits. View many original artefacts, many dating rom 1689, such as King William III's saddle cloth, a letter written by King William II with signature and intact seals, The Cork Statuette and many more fraternal exhibits. Our temporary exhibition for 2018, Service & Sacrifice, marks the contrioution of the Orange Family to the Great War. There is also a very good gift shop with books and many fine items and a lovely cafe. Open Tues-Sat 10am-5pm last entry 4pm. Late Opening By Arrangement, Group Bookings welcome.

CATHEDRAL QUARTER The 🧡 of Belfast

No visitor to Belfast should miss out on

Belfast's most vibrant inner city neighbourhood. Characterised by arts and culture, Belfast's history is reflected in many beautiful and historic buildings and streets. It is home to venues, galleries, festivals and some of Belfast's best hotels, entertainment,

ls	Galleries
naison	4 Golden Thread Gallery
lotel by Marriott	The MAC
Merchant	d Belfast Exposed
ne Ramada Encore	e Café31/Fenderesky Gallery
tt Hotel	D University of Atypical Gallery
	<ol> <li>Gooselane Gallery @</li> </ol> Tivoli Barber Shop
ums, libraries	🔟 Belfast Print Workshop

V The Engine Room Gallery

Entertainment 👀 N I War Memorial Museum C Roval Ulster Rifles Museum b The Black Box G Keats and Chapman Belfast Community 🕦 The Friend at Hand

Oh Yeah Centre Shopping

ircus School

Bars & Pubs

3 Hill Street, BT1 2LA Belfast, t. 028 9024 3712,

highly popular beer garden and courtyard. nside, low ceilings supported by exposed wooden beams and original brick walls throughout nod to the past. Monday: rad sessions, Tuesday: Bodhran Lessons, Wednesday: Harp session, Thursday: Live bluegrass, Friday: Live bands & musicians from 6pm, Saturday: Live bands 48 Gt. Victoria St, t. 028 9024 2986 k musicians from 2pm, Sunday: Trad sessions from 2pm. ee www.thedirtyonion.com for details

Bullitt Hotel, 40a Church Lane, Belfast, BT1 4QN, t. 028 9590 0600,

E4 1 TITANIC BOAT TOURS Dept. pontoon beside The Big Fish sculpture,

t. 028 9024 0124, m. 07718 910423, www.laganboatcompany.com Guided Titanic Harbour Boat tours tell the tory of Belfast's rich maritime heritage and ndustry and how the Port has developed and hanged from it's industrial shipbuilding roots to major tourist attraction. It embraces the RMS itanic story and allows you to view and photograph the Titanic Quarter from the water. In the summer the Tour heads round to Musgrave Channel where you may view Belfast's large breeding seal colony. Boat hire is available for private parties, see web site for further details (F4). Visit the Maritime Emporium (E4) ticket ffice and gift shop at the base of the Obel skyscraper. Adult £12, Child £10 Family Ticket £35 (2 Adults and 2 Children 5-16 yrs), under 5 yrs free. Sixty minute tours dept. April-Oct: daily 12:30pm, 2pm and 3:30pm. Always check ahead to confirm tour times and price.

C1 BVERTIGO INDOOR SKYDIVING Queens Road, Titanic Quarter, BT3 9DT, t. 0870 0661 533, info@wearevertigo.com, 🚺 📴 🛄

about jumping out of a perfectly good aeroplane? Why not try the exciting world of indoor skydiving? Our Titanic Park complex, in the heart of Belfast, has Ireland's only indoor skydiving centre, allowing anyone aged from 4-104 to pread their wings and fly at 120mph! We cater for all flying abilities, from first time flyers to pro flyers, with packages for individuals, groups of flyers and everything in between!

Always wanted to skydive? Not too enthusiastic

Book via our website wearevertigo.com G5 😵 ULSTER HALL

34 Bedford Street, t. 028 9033 4455, www.ulsterhall.co.uk, 🚺 🛅 🧰 🔼 lome to contemporary and classical music, theatre, literature, sports, comedy and more the Ulster Hall is one of Northern Ireland's most elebrated cultural landmarks, having been at the neartbeat of Belfast's arts and entertainment scene or over 150 years. The iconic venue has hosted a alaxy of music superstars, from Led Zeppelin and Red Hot Chili Peppers to the very latest pop & rock sensations. Boxing fans have witnessed legends from Rinty Monaghan to Barry McGuigan. Kings of comedy from Billy Connolly to Tommy Tiernan have reduced packed houses to tears o laughter. Literary geniuses from Charles Dickens to acclaimed contemporary riters have captivated audiences with their readings. The Ulster Hall is also home to the historic Mulholland Grand Organ, one of the finest examples o pipe organ building. Find us on Facebook: Belfast Waterfront and Ulster Hall. Follow us on Twitter: @UlsterHall

E5 3 NORTHERN IRELAND WAR MEMORIAL MUSEUM 21 Talbot St, Cathedral Quarter, t. 028 9032 0392, www.niwarmemorial.org, 🚺 /NIWarMemorialMuseum

with an interest in Northern Ireland's role in the second World War. The Museum tells the story of the Belfast Blitz in 1941, the Ulster Home Guard, he role of women in the war and the presence of US Forces. The fallen are remembered in a agnificent stained glass window and a granite olinth containing Books of Remembrance for the First and Second World War. The museum offers a range of family events, as well as workshops and talks for primary schools and community groups. Visit www. niwarmemorial.org or follow NIWarMemorialMuseum on Facebook. Free Admis-

This accredited museum is a 'must see' for anyone

sion, Monday to Friday, 10am - 4:30pm. B1 40 HMS CAROLINE

veryday sounds in the Officers' cabins and enjoy teractive exhibits throughout the ship. Soak up the tmosphere as you learn about communication at sea in the Signal School and see if you can crack the code using techniques like semaphore and flags. A visit to the Torpedo School enables you to explore naval weaponry, create your own dazzle camouflage and try to evade an enemy attack! HMS Caroline is Belfast's newest visitor attraction and a unique survivor from the First World War. Visit www.hmscaroline.co.uk to book online and save up to 20%. Open daily 10am - 5pm. Last admission, 4:15pm. Tickets also available at door.

Bars & Pubs

E5 PTHE BERLINER, D.I.V.E BAR & GOOSE 1-3 Lower Garfield Street, Belfast, BT1 1FP,

t. 02890 239163, 🛐 @theberlinerbelfast Everything you need under one roof in this historic building.

The Berliner - Classic and fresh pub style food with nouse cocktails, live music and All the sport, its a one stop shop for everything. D.I.V.E - Upstairs at 68 North St, D.I.V.E boasts a vibrant industrial style dive bar with pool, £6 everything menu for food and cocktails, arcade machines and two 120" screens to watch the sports or your favourite television show.

Goose - Hidden in goose lane, This back alley award winning bar is hosted by Belfast's very best cocktail bartenders. Expect insight and tastes you've never experienced before in a cozy intimate setting. Open: 12pm-1am.

E4/5 <sup>(3)</sup> THE CLOTH EAR 16 Skipper Street, Belfast, BT1 2DZ, t. 028 9023 4888, www.themerchanthotel.com, info@themerc he Cloth Ear is The Merchant Hotel's comfortab public bar. Situated in the Grade A listed part of the building, it has many original features as well as some modern touches. The pub offers an exceptional range of craft beers, ales and stouts, beers from around the world as well as a fine portfolio of Irish and International whiskies and

hanthotel.com 🛐 Cloth Ear A SHALL STOR

. classic cocktails. Our All Day menu ranges from tempura prawns and bruschetta to Shepherd's pie and our famous hanging skewers. We also have dedicated Vegan and Gluten Allergy menus so whether you're in the mood for light bites or something more substantial, there will be something for everyone! The Cloth Ear shows all the big sporting events notably Premier League football matches, local and International Rugby and major golf tournaments.

G6 BRENNAN'S BAR

/ictoria Street Bus and Rail Station, and close to the rand Opera House, ensures this traditional Belfast par attracts a steady stream of suits, shoppers ightseers and night owls. Daily drinks promos ep the holiday budget in check, and there's a reat selection of local pub grub. We're talking ish classics such as Creamy Seafood Chowder, Beef & Guinness Pie and Baked

0.8

EE

ocation opposite the Europa Hotel and Great

Irish Ham and Champ (that's mashed potatoes and spring onions to the ininitiated). The spacious interior boasts an open fire, old-style mahogany and prass bar, and counter, table and snug seating. Sports fans will relish the large creen coverage of their favourite game. And, on Friday and Saturday nights, a party crowd rocks up for live music in the upstairs bar. Open daily 11.30am-late.

C3/4 29 THE AMERICAN BAR 65 Dock Street, Belfast BT15 1LF, t. 028 9074 3964, americanbarbelfast@gmail.com 🛐 📴 Dating back to the 1860's this pub has always been called The American. Why exactly we don't know but being on Belfast's dock side it would have had links to the Americas through shipping, trade and emigration, not least during the Irish famine of the mid 1800's. Historically the pub would have been frequented by dockers, carters and riveters... truly the nard men of Belfast. Sailortown is also the home of the legendry Belfast boxer Rinty Monaghan, an undisputed world champion in the 1940's. His photograph along with other Belfast champions fill the back wall. This new chapter of the pub commenced in October 2016 and is once more alive with impromptu music sessions, poetry and gigs over two floors. The walls are adorned with both Sailortown and American photographs and paraphernalia - car number plates, boxers, scarfs, beer signs and mirrors.

Gifts and Souvenirs

E5 O THE WICKER MAN 18 High Street, Belfast BT1 2BD, t. 028 9024 3550,

he Wicker Man gift shop and gallery is a centre of excellence and a permanent platform representing the best talent of artisans from all over Ireland. It represents a diverse range of traditional and contemporary objects from the functional to the aesthetic, attracting locals and visitors alike. A newly created Game Of Thrones area allows makers of Celtic, Medieval and Viking products to showcase their knowledge and skills alongside the official merchandise of this fantastic production. Visit The Wicker Man 7 days a week.

F4 20 ST GEORGE'S MARKET

Entrances on May St, Oxford St and East Bridge St, www.belfastcity.gov.uk/markets

Savour the delights of this award-winning covere Victorian market, built in the 1890's on the site of the city's 17th Century meat market. Friday's Variety Market (6am - 3pm) sells fruit, vegetables, books, clothes, fish and antiques. Saturday's City Food and Craft Market (9am - 3pm) delights with local and international cuisine and unique arts and crafts. And the Sunday Market (10am - 4pm) combines the two and attracts the usual large numbers of locals and visitors. With live music every weekend, St George's Market is a truly unmissable city shopping and eating experience.

G5 D STEENSONS Bedford House, Bedford Street, Belfast BT2 7FD,

t. +44 (0) 28 9024 8269, www.thesteensons.com

Steensons have been handcrafting their stunning contemporary jewellery for 40 years from the picturesque village of Glenarm, along the inspiring Causeway Coast Route. Most recently Steensons have become known for handcrafting Crowns, pendants and belts for the hit series Game of Thrones. Their Glenarm workshop is open to the public where you can view the craftspeople at work. Their beautiful

4-24

Belfast store, Situated behind the city hall on Bedford Street, is a must for any visitor and craft lover to the city. Alongside Steensons own collections you will also find an eclectic selection of jewellery designers from UK, Ireland and Europe. From small earrings to striking diamond rings, you're sure to find the perfect gift.

D5 WUNIQUE DESIGN & CRAFTS 25-51 York St, Belfast, BT15 1ED, t. 028 95367070,

www.ulster.ac.uk/artshop/home, 🌇 🛅 🧰 /Uniquebelfast Jnique Art and Design Shop is an innovative COLUMN DESCRIPTION OF student-led enterprise located in Ulster University's Belfast Campus in the heart of the Cathedral Quarter. Unique allows Ulster University students both present and past to sell their work in a commercial environment on campus. Visitors can view and purchase bespoke pieces, from an array of art and design disciplines including painting, photography, ceramics, sculpture, jewellery, fashion, graphic design, illustration, printmaking, extiles and fine art, that have been crafted by our talented students and alumni. The shop encompasses an art gallery and is available for hire as a "Unique" event location. t also hosts workshop evenings and demonstrations. Open: Mon-Fri 10am-5pm, Sat (during term time) 11am-3pm.

Restaurants & Cafes

E6 HAVANA BANK SO 56-58 Berry Street, Belfast BT1 1FJ,

t. 028 9031 0809, www.havanabanksq.com Havana is an intimate restaurant tucked away pehind the recently de eloped Bank Sg in Belfa City Centre serving #FoodNotToMiss seven days and six nights a week. If you're looking for a venue with a difference then Havana Bank Sg is the place for you. Inspired by Old Havana with bare brick walls, high ceilings and beautiful chandeliers the restaurant design combined with warm and friendly service from our World Host trained front of house team we have everything required to make your dining experience memorable.

his prime city centre location, where you can sample Spain's authentic specialities in vibrant atmosphere. This family owned isiness has been bringing sunshine to Belfast for over 14 years. Choose from a wide nge of quality tapas, from meat & poultry fish & shellfish, as well as steaks and good Spanish wines. 2Taps has one of Belfast's few terraced dining areas, where nisk yourself off to the Mediterranean in you can sip Sangria and watch the world go while trying to spot celebrities staying at The Merchant Hotel. It has fantastic heaters if the local weather doesn't live up to the Costa de Sol. Don't miss out on the sharing platters and Level 2 Victoria Square, Belfast, check out Facebook for offers. Open Tues-Sun 12pm to late!

E/F5 DLITTLE WING

10 Ann Street, Belfast, BT1 4EF, t. 028 9024 7000, www.littlewingpizzeria.com, 🛐 \littlew ingpizzeria. 🛅 \littlewingpizza

Little Wing is Northern Ireland's very own of authentic Neapolitan style pizzas, and h locations across the country. Little Wing u finest, freshest ingredients, gathering the delicious toppings from both locally sourced and Italian suppliers. The restaurants offer a family friendly feel and the menus cater for everyone at affordable prices. A fantastic range of offers are available for both adults and kids. 'Little Wing Little Bill' menu offers 2 courses with a selected glass of wine soft drink or beer for only £13.95 per person (Sunday to Wednesday), Little Wind kid's menu offers 3 courses for only £5.95! Offers are available throughout a outlets – Ann Street, Lisburn Road, Ballyhackamore, Bangor, Hollywood, Lisburn Square, Enniskillen and the latest addition in Newtownards! Open: 11am-10pm.

E6 2 THE SAGART KITCHEN & BAR

lext door to the historic St. Mary's Church, The Sagart Kitchen & Bar have developed their menu to be a bit of a play on their spiritual to stunningly beautiful places, most of surroundings; along with their name - The which are remote and hard to find. Tre Sagart; meaning Priest in Irish. The Saint vs deep into old growth forests, along wild Sinners menu is a combination of indulgent sea cliffs, across rocky beaches, int treats and healthier choices, running through caves and crumbling medieval ruin both food and beverages, with an additional menu for Vegan options.

www.thesagartkitchenbar.com

Restaurants & Cafes

E5 7 THE NATIONAL GRANDE CAFE 62-68 High Street, Belfast, BT1 2BE, t. 028 9031 1130, www.thenationalbelfast.com, Bookings@thenationalbelfast.com

encorebelfast.co.uk

E5 🚳 YARDBIRD

F/G6 <sup>20</sup> FLAME RESTAURANT

Live music Friday & Saturday nights finish your Saturday night off in style.

6/6a Callender St, Belfast, BT1 5HX,

G/H6 2 CHICK N LICK N

E4 I TAYLOR & CLAY

E/F4 TGI FRIDAY'S

GAME OF THRONES TOURS

Game of Thrones Tours are not like most sightseeing coach tours. They take you

Also provided are Stark & Iron Bor

cloaks, swords, shields & helms at no

F5 <sup>(B)</sup> LEVANTINE

the heart of Belfast's Cathedral Quarter lies The National Grande Café. Our café bar and beer garden are perfect for any time of the day or night, with food served daily; this is casual dining at its best! We have become locally renowned for our dynamic cocktail list, an extensive craft bee and ale selection, our coffee, innovative lunch specials and our Sunday brunch menu. Situated at the rear of the café, our walled garden allows you to escape the hustle and bustle of the city. Hosting live acts and some of Belfast's top DJs on our club nights, it is the perfect retrea any time of the year. Stylish and downright sharp, sixty6 is situated above The National Grande Café and features three floors of "fabulous"! It has a 4th-floor club, a luxurious 50's themed 'downtime' drinking lounge, a chic rooftop and an intimate cocktail bar, all under one decadent roof! Open: 8.30am to late. D5 3 (C) RAMADA ENCORE BELFAST

Saint Anne's Square, 20 Talbot Street, Belfast, BT1 2LD

Situated in the heart of Belfast city's vibran Cathedral Quarter, with all the most popular bars and restaurants on the doorstep, the Ramada Encore is the ideal place to stay for your next Belfast city break. Seasonal discount packages available. The SQ Bar & Grill offers an array of tempting cocktails as well as your favourite tipple and if you are there between 3 & 6 pm on Fridays, cocktails are ONLY £4 AND served with nibbles. The Meat Inn Joint menu boasts 28-day dry aged steaks, perfect for sharing as well as our SQ favourite, beer battered haddock with chunky chips. Live music every Saturday from 7 pm. Open for breakfast. unch & dinner. Free Wi-Fi available. Call 90261800 or email reservations@

46 Howard St, Belfast BT1 6PG, t. 028 90 332121, www.flamerestaurant.co.uk, info@flamerestaurant.co.uk

At Flame Restaurant we work instinctively	WOLLOW THE REAL OF with fire, using kiln dried ash & tandoori	A Designation of the second ovens to marry together the very best	States of the second
locally sourced produce, morning,	A PERSON NAMES INCOMENTS afternoon and evening. As you sit at your	Service Service Services table overlooking our open kitchen, our custom-built grill brings cooking to life.

Our Menu is entirely powered & flavoured by fire, everything is cooked to order to showcase the natural beauty of wood fired cooking. Our menu ranges from prime steaks, local seafood, tandoori dishes & vegetarian Pre-Theatre menu £22 for 3 course, Monday – Saturday 5-6:30pm &

3 Hill Street, BT1 2LA Belfast, t. 028 9024 3712,

www.thedirtyonion.com, info@thedirtyonion.com 🚺 🔝 ardbird is our clucking good rotisserie chicker restaurant upstairs at the Dirty Onion. Open daily from 12pm, our local free-to-roam chicken marinated for 24 hours in lemon, buttermilk and paprika. It is then dry-rubbed, cooked and blast-chilled to keep it juicy and finally roasted on the spit. Ribs and wings are also available, as are a choice of sides and homemade desserts. Hungry yet? We have a host of great meal deals including lunch for £5 and Hatch 22, which offers a whole chicken, 2 sides and a carafe of wine to share for only £22! And just to keep it exciting, every Saturday night we turn the restaurant into a live music venue rom 11pm. Yardbird Unplucked brings you the best local bands and lets you

t. 028 90 310342, www.levantineni.co.uk, 🛐 🧰 Visit Belfast's first City Centre Vegetarian Restaurar Specialising in the delicate spiced flavours of the Eastern Mediterranean, this cool new restaurant offers traditional meze and many dishes with a modern twist. Favourites such as Falafel, Tabboleh and Fattoush can be found along side sweet treats such as Baclava. Usin the best local and eastern spices, hot and cold hom or eat on the hoof by choosing from a wide range of takeaway options. Situated at the back of Marks and Spenser off Donegal Square, it is perfectly situated for the main shopping drags and Belfast's night life scene. Open 12-8pm.

25-27 Dublin Rd, t. 028 9031 0373, www.chicknlickn.co.uk. Find us on 🚺 Located on the edge of the University Ouarte near popular bars and clubs, this tasty eatery is situated just opposite the Movie House Cinema The New York style bar with booth seating giv the space a mini-diner vibe. If you crave some delicious crispy fried chicken but your mate prefers it grilled, look no further! Along with a profusion of other fast food delights, tasty burgers and wraps are on offer, served with sauces, salads, rice and frie Sweet chilli and peri peri options lend an extra zing, while delicious milkshakes make your meal complete. They open late so you can feed those midnight munchies. Students get a 10% discount. Students get a 10% discount. Open: Sun-Thu 12pm - 3am, Fri & Sat 12pm - 4am. 🕓

Bullitt Hotel, 40a Church Lane, Belfast, BT1 4QN, t. 028 9590 0600, www.bullitthotel.com, info@bullitthotel.com

Taylor & Clay is located inside the stylish Bullitt Hotel, smack bang in the middle of	- Belfast city centre, and is open for breakfast, lunch and dinner. At the heart of Taylor &	Contraction of the local division of the loc
Clay lies its bespoke Asador grill which cooks	ALL ADDRESS OF TAXABLE PARTY.
prime cuts of meat, seafood and vegetables	THE PARTY OF THE P over roaring fires of lump-wood charcoal
and ash wood sourced from sustainable	A DECKS

local forests. One of Taylor & Clay's specialities is its mouth-watering wagyu beef which is a cut above the rest due to unique feeding and breeding techniques that result in intense flavours as well as healthier, more ethically farmed beef. After your meal, relax in one of Bullitt's bars or take a seat in the courtyard and sample some delicious cocktails and local craft beers

www.tgibelfast.co.uk, t. +44 (0) 2890 249050, 🚺 /tgi.belfast

Located on Level 2 of Belfast's iconic Victoria Square ou will find everything you would expect from any TGI riday's around the globe, but with an added local feel. hoose from a great selection of food including their amous Tennessee Glazed ribs, juicy steaks & burgers, vhich can be accompanied by a huge selection of delicious cocktails in addition to local beers, whiskey's and ciders. This family friendly restaurant is a firm avourite with locals and tourists. No booking required /iew the menu at www. tgibelfast.co.uk, or give us a like at www.facebook. com/tgi.belfast. We look forward to giving you a warm Belfast welcome soon. Free Wi-fi. Open 12noon-10pm daily.

Tours

www.gameofthronestours.com, info@gameofthronestours.com,